

ALL DIAMONDS ARE BLOOD DIAMONDS

U.S.-WIDE TOUR

Greetings!

Burning Spear Tours is proud to announce the 2007 All Diamonds are Blood Diamonds tour, featuring Omavi Bailey and Dr. Aisha Fields.

Omavi Bailey is the Director of Burning Spear Media, a growing multi-faceted revolutionary news and information institution that presents the views and aspirations of African working people worldwide.

Dr. Fields is a physicist who coordinates the All African People's Development and Empowerment Projects, working with people in Africa, and elsewhere in the African world, to develop sustainable, renewable electrification and water purification programs in their communities.

As the eyes of the world focus on the issue of Africa's blood or conflict diamonds, Mr. Bailey and Dr. Fields are touring the U.S. to expose the reality that even the so-called legitimate diamond trade is dripping in the blood of African people. Making their case with videos, PowerPoint presentations and expert testimony, Fields and Bailey show that all diamonds are blood diamonds. As Mr. Bailey states, "The entire diamond industry is based in the colonial legacy of 500 years of European plunder of the African continent which has enriched the Western world to the exact extent that it has impoverished African people."

What is exciting about these two dynamic, talented young people is that they are dedicated to the struggle to liberate Africa and all of its resources for the benefit of African working people. As members of the Uhuru Movement leading the struggle to unite Africa and African people worldwide, Fields and Bailey put forward irrefutable solutions for Africa's crisis found not in charity or "relief" but in African people themselves coming together to solve Africa's problems using Africa's vast natural resources as their birthright.

You can bring Omavi Bailey and Aisha Fields to your campus or community. Contact Burning Spear Tours to find out how you can bring these two powerful movement leaders to your area.
